The fire last night was the burning of a stable at the residence of Dr. Todd, out in East Wheeling. The alarm was sounded all over the city, and the ention shall be uniform throughout the State." However worthy the object was felt by nearly all to be, there were many of the friends of the bill who be-lieved that it was inexpedient, on ac-count of the reason above named. The count of the reason acrove hamed. The bill, however, went to the Senate. When it came up in that body a substi-tute to it was adopted, providing for the refunding of taxes of the kind referred to. Some maintain that this action is also unconstitutional, and for the same ni. Another amendment was of-to apply the law only to the pro-of privates, leaving out officers, would be manifestly unjust to y who entered the army as pri-s, were subsequently commissioned only served as officers a short time, bill, or its substitute, is yet to be finally acted upon.

The tow boat Little Champion arrived here yesterday having in tow the hull of Capt. Russell's new stern wheel steam boat, building for the Wheeling and Cinelinnati trade. The hull was built by Messrs. Flesher & Shillenger, at Murraysville. Messrs. Hance & Beam of this city are going to build the cabin. The boat is 107 feet long, 38 feet beam, 5 feet 3 inch hold. Her engines will have 5½ feet stroke. She will have three boilers 20 feet long, and 40 inches in diameter, and 7 flues each. She will have all modern improvements, and will in all her outfit and apportion-ments be a first class boat.

The Revenue, repairing at our boat yard, will be down, it is thought, by Sunday next,

A LIGHT ON THE SUSPENSION BRIDGE. We have had suggested to us the propriety of placing a gas light on the sus-pension bridge, and we have concluded to give to the public, and more especial-ly to the authorities, the plan as pro-posed to us, and our views on the subposed to us, and the vew of the such an improvement is highly necessary, not only to the travelers over the bridge, but to the steamboatmen. At a very small cost a gas pipe could be carried m the main land out on or under the or of the bridge to the highest part of bridge, distant from this end say bridge. These would not only throw a light all over the bridge, but would indicate to passing steamboats the high-est-point of the bridge, under which they could pass when the river was high. Only the other night the steamboat the bridge, and they could pass when the river was high. Only the other night the steamboat the bridge, to the shore, she would get among the gurs, passed down too far out and struck the bridge, sustaining a loss in damages, time and expense, of perhaps several thousand dollars. If there had been any means of knowing where the highest part of the bridge was, she could have passed under safely, as there was plenty of water. We refer this matter to the authorities, believing that if they adopt our suggestions in the matter, they will be conferring, at a very small cost, a great benefit on a great many persons.

THE "CITIZENS' RAILWAY OF WHEEL-ING."-This afternoon in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Managers of the Chamber of Commerce, the books of the "Citizens' Railway will be opened for subscription at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at the Council Chambers,

We published the other morning, in a report of the proceedings of the Board referred to, a committee report, by which it was shown that only about a hundred shares of stock were taken in the company when the books were previously opened. The aggregate amount of the shares subscribed was only some five or six thousand dollars—not more perhaps than one twenty-fifth of the amount necessary for the completion of the road. It has been said by many that the books were not kept open fong enough; that more money would have been subscribed if opportunity had been afforded. To remedy this mistake—if it really occurred—the books are to be opened to-day, when an opportunity will be presented to all to subscribe to the stock of the road.

A gentleman from New York city was recently—or is now—in the city, who offered, on the part of a company of New York capitalists, to build the road; to commence it as soon as Spring opens, and to complete it within sixty days thereafter. It is thought by many, and reasonably, we think, that as much as possible of the capital of this road should be held in our own city. There is no telling what influence the investment of a hundred or so thousands of dollars of foreign capital in our city might exert. We hope, then, to see a large amount, if not all, of the stock taken by our home capitalists. The gentleman above referred to, we understand, proposes to take what

The gentleman above referred to, we understand, proposes to take what stock is not subscibed here.

From the fact that a company of experienced eastern capitalists are willing to invest in the road, it is presumable that it will be a good investment. The charter allows to the company most extensive privileges, more than are commonly extended to such corporations. In addition to a passenger business, the company will be allowed to do a reight business, and their limit of chargesis exceedingly liberal.

It is to be reasonably supposed that a project so large as this one should drag for at least a time, as this one has done, but we feel that the railway is now in a fair way to success.
